

EdDem Network Meeting at the University of Michigan

December 12, 2024

The Network on Education, Biosocial Pathways, and Dementia across Diverse Populations

Date: Thursday, December 12

Time: 9:30 am – 3:00 pm (EST)

Physical Location: ISR Thompson Building at the University of Michigan (426 Thompson St., Room 6050, Ann Arbor, MI)

Zoom: <https://umich.zoom.us/j/91281188213?pwd=YAAQRdtuR2BO33XVRvWYAvAi8i4L8U.1>

Agenda

9.30 am -9.45 am Welcome

9.45 am – 11.00 am Study Presentations [HRS, Add Health, Add Health Parents, EdSHARe, Great Smoky Mountain Study, Understanding America, WLS, NSHAP, NHATS, ACL, PSID, NLSY, MIDUS, Project Talent, Monitoring the Future] on key opportunities to study the relationship between education and cognitive decline.

Contextual Data

11.00 am – 11.45 am

Linking Neighborhood and School Data

Jennifer Candipan, Brown University

Respondent: Bob Hummer, UNC-Chapel Hill, Add Health

11.45 am – 12.30 pm

Racial Segregation and Cognition

Maggie Hicken, University of Michigan

Respondent: Chandra Muller, UT-Austin, Rob Warren, University of Minnesota, EdSHARe

12.30 pm -1 pm Lunch

Implication of Measurement for Understanding the Relationship between Education and Cognition

1 pm – 1.45 pm

Inequalities in accelerated cognitive decline: Resolving observational window bias using nested non-linear regression

Sean Clouston, SUNY-Stony Brook

Respondent: Jessica Faul, University of Michigan, HRS

1.45 pm – 2.45 pm

Leveraging Meta Data to Assess Cognition

Stefan Schneider, University of Southern California

Respondent: Victoria Williams, University of Wisconsin-Madison, WLS

2.45 pm – 3 pm. Wrap Up. What Can EdDem Do for You?