

TRENDS

Evaluating trends in old-age disability

Agenda for the meeting of the TRENDS Network
Monday, May 23, 2016
Room 1430 BD, Institute for Social Research

Sunday, May 22

7pm Optional group dinner at Eve, inside the Bell Tower Hotel, 300 South Thayer, 734-222-0711

Monday, May 23

8:15-8:45 Continental breakfast

8:45-9:00 Welcome

9:00-9:40 Is obesity becoming more disabling over time?
Virginia Chang, Dawn Alley, and Jennifer Dowd

9:40-10:20 Measuring recent apparent declines in longevity:
The role of increasing educational attainment
John Bound, Arline Geronimus, Javier Rodriguez, Tim Waidmann

10:20-10:40 Break

10:40-11:20 Heterogeneity in active life expectancy: A discrete mixture model
Doug Wolf and Jennifer Karas Montez

11:20-12:00 Assessing mental illness and its incumbent disability:
Toward developing a population perspective
Bob Wallace

12:00-12:40 Lunch

12:40--1:20 How has longevity and health of older people changed over the last two decades? Results from the Cognitive Function and Ageing Studies
Carol Jagger

1:20-2:00 Complex health problems among the oldest old in Sweden:
Increase prevalence rates between 1992 and 2002
and stable rates thereafter
Bettina Meinow, Marti Parker, Stefan Fors

2:00-2:20 Break

- 2:20-3:00 Forecasting trends in disability in a super-aging society:
Adapting the future elderly model to Japan
 Brian Chen, Hawre Jalal, Hideki Hashimoto, Sze-Chuan Suen, Karen
 Eggleston, Michael Hurley, Lena Schoemaker,
 Jay Bhattacharya
- 3:00-3:15 Next steps; Network business