

Network on Longitudinal Studies of Aging in the U.S.

2016 Meeting
Tuesday, September 13

American Institutes for Research, Conference Room 3131A/B
1025 Thomas Jefferson Street, NW, Washington, D.C.

Agenda

9:00-9:30am Continental breakfast

9:30-10:45pm Project updates

Add Health Parent Study – Kathleen Mullan Harris
Understanding America Study – Arie Kapteyn
Midlife Development in the United States – Maxine Weinstein
National Social Life, Health and Aging Study – Colm O'Muircheartaigh
National Health and Aging Trends Study – Judith Kasper
Americans' Changing Lives – Sarah Burgard
Project Talent – Susan Lapham and Deanna Lyter Achorn
Panel Study of Income Dynamics – Vicki Freedman
Wisconsin Longitudinal Study – Pamela Herd
Health and Retirement Study – Mary Beth Ofstedal

10:45-11:00am Break

11:00-12:30pm NIA/SSA updates, discussion – John Haaga, Georgeanne Patmios and John Phillips

- Innovative solutions to the “cost/content squeeze”
- Screens for representative samples
- New data collection modes
- Cost/quality impacts of changes in interview periodicity
- High value methods of lowering attrition

12:30-1:30pm Lunch

1:30-3:45pm Discussion topics

- Use of internet and mobile devices for data collection and contacting participants
- Review and dissemination of sensitive data

3:45-4:00pm Next steps, network business