

2024 NHATS/NSOC Research Conference on Caregiving to Older Adults with Dementia
June 20-21, 2024, Ann Arbor, MI
Agenda

Thursday June 20th 5-6:30 Poster Session and Reception
Michigan League, Courtyard Garden, 911 N. University

The impact of virtual communication on caregiver anxiety and depression during the COVID-19 pandemic: A comparison of dementia and nondementia caregivers. Claire Petchler, Martha Abshire-Saylor, Yiqing Qian, & Katherine Ornstein, Johns Hopkins University School of Nursing

Cognitive trajectories of care recipients and their caregivers' depressive symptoms. Xuiqing Wang, Princeton University, Susan Silva & Cristina Hendrix, Duke University

Shared experience of frailty and social participation among caregiving dyads: comparing dyads with and without dementia. Hyojin Choi, Kristin Litzelman, University of Wisconsin-Madison & Maija Reblin, University of Vermont

Associations between Medicaid managed long-term services and supports and the caregiving context of older dual-enrollees with and without dementia. Andrew Jobson, Chanee D. Fabius, Katherine A. Ornstein, Antonio Trujillo, Jennifer L. Wolff, Johns Hopkins University

Bidirectional associations of social isolation among family caregiving dyads: exploring heterogeneity by dementia status. Yiging Qian, Mary Louise Pomeroy, Martha Abshire Saylor, & Katherine Ornstein, Johns Hopkins University

Caregiver multiple chronic condition patterns: associations with care recipient unmet needs. Shelbie Turner, Cornell University, Dakota Witzel, Pennsylvania State University, Aaron Ogletree, National Institutes of Health

Exploring racial/ethnic differences in caregiving network size trajectories and the impact on caregiver experiences among informal caregivers of individuals with probable and possible dementia: Insights from NHATS & NSOC. Wenhua Lai, Natasha Nemmers, Amanda Leggett, Wayne State University

A national profile of older adults who lost a spouse. Lianlian Lei & Donovan T. Maust, University of Michigan

The role of social factors in telehealth utilization and health outcomes for older adults with mild cognitive impairment. Yijung Kim, MedStar Health, Sae Hwang Han, University of Texas at Austin, & Lauren Bangerter, MedStar Health

Caring for older adults with hearing loss: implications for caregiving intensity and well-being. Kira Birditt, Angelica Eagle, Angela Turkelson, Emily Noyer, Michael McKee, & Emma Weber University of Michigan

Friday June 21st: Paper Presentations
1430 ISR, 426 Thompson Street (Webinar also available)

| | |
|---------------------|---|
| 8:45 am | Light Breakfast |
| 9:15 am – 10:00 am | Welcome, Overview of Day Vicki A. Freedman, University of Michigan & Jennifer L. Wolff, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health Dementia and caregiving trends and the emerging policy environment |
| 10:00 am – 11:00 am | Chanee Fabius, Joseph Gallo, MD, & Jennifer Wolff, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health Sharing roles in home care between family caregivers and paid caregivers |
| 10:30 am – 11:00 am | Natasha Nemmers, & Amanda Leggett, Wayne State University Hospitalization risk among older adults living alone: Understanding the impact of dementia and caregiving network characteristics |
| 11:00 am – 11:15 am | Break |
| 11:15 am – 11:45 am | Julia Burgdorf, Center for Home Care Policy & Research & Jennifer Wolff, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health Current training and respite care use among dementia care partners, by proposed GUIDE model payment tiers |
| 11:45 am – 12:00 pm | Discussion, Q&A, Katherine Ornstein, Johns Hopkins University |
| 12:00 pm – 1:15 pm | Lunch/Networking |
| 1:15 pm -1:45 pm | Yifan Lou & Emma Zang, Yale University, Hantao Jiang, UNC-Chapel Hill, & Yiting Wang, University of Virginia School of Medicine Care recipients' cognitive trajectories and caregivers' caregiving intensity and difficulties: A group-based longitudinal analysis |
| 1:45 pm – 2:15 pm | Yee To Ng, Vicki A. Freedman, Anna Kratz, & Kira Birditt, University of Michigan Beyond caregiving: daily pleasant activities among dementia and non-dementia caregivers |
| 2:15 pm – 2:45 pm | Stipica Mudrazija & Sofia Ayala, University of Washington Characteristics of caregiving and differences in work-related burdens for adult children caring for older parents with and without dementia |
| 2:45 pm – 3:00 pm | Discussion, Q&A, Sarah Patterson, University of Michigan |
| 3:00 pm – 3:15 pm | Closing Remarks |